

About Us

The Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ) GmbH is a globally active service provider dedicated to international cooperation for sustainable development and is active in over 120 countries.

The GIZ Data Lab is a digital innovation hub within GIZ, experimenting with data-driven solutions to tackle complex global challenges.

With NegotiateAI, our goal is to help delegations navigate the growing volume of unstructured information through targeted, efficient and in-depth analysis.

www.negotiate-ai.com

NegotiateAI

AI-powered insights and smart document access to support the UN negotiations for a global plastics treaty.

What is Malaysia's position on polymers of concern?

Compare India's and Togo's position on just transition.

Do the selected countries prefer a top down instrument?

giz Deutsche Gesellschaft
für Internationale
Zusammenarbeit (GIZ) GmbH

The Tool

NegotiateAI is designed to streamline access to key information on the UN Plastic Treaty Negotiations.

The app offers a centralised, comprehensive database of documents submitted by delegations and groups of states, available on the official INC website, along with a suite of interactive tools to support analysis and engagement.

Draft Treaty Document Explorer

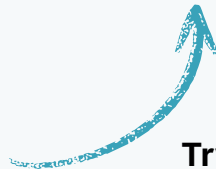

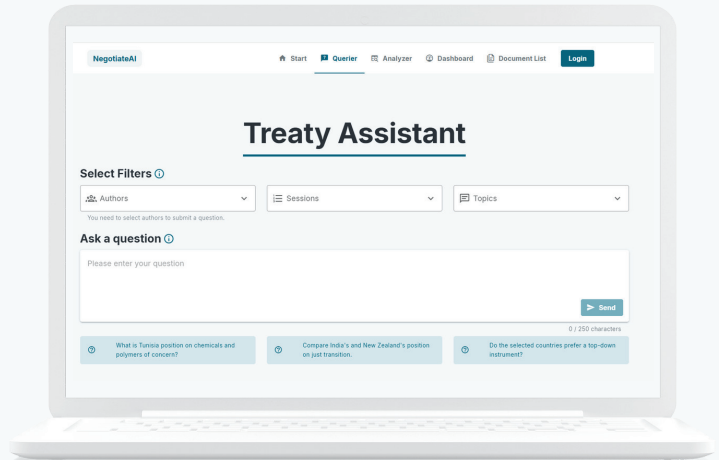

Advanced Analysis & Comparison

Intuitive Chatbot Interface

Direct Document Access

Try it out and help us improve!

<https://negotiate-ai.com/chat-interface>

Our priority is to make NegotiateAI as valuable and helpful as possible for its target group. Share your thoughts and feedback at datalab@giz.de.